Dr. Ashok Bhosale, Principal, Shankarrao Ursal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences & Research Centre, Kharadi, welcomed him for accepting the invitation and sparing his valuable time to guide on the NAAC Process.

The faculty received guidance from Dr. Nitin Ghorpade regarding the value of papers, the necessity of maintaining them, creative methods of documenting, and the digitization of records.

Additionally, he highlighted the need for curriculum documentation, efficient curriculum delivery, a feedback system, an evaluation model for learner attributes, outcome-based education, research, innovation, and extension, infrastructure and learning resources, and the advancement of students.

Also, he highlighted assessment in the context of NAAC—performance evaluation of an institution or its units based on certain established criteria.

All the faculty members of Pharm. and Pharm. programs were present and participated actively in asking the queries they had. It was very useful seminar for all faculty members.

NAAC Coordinator Dr. Vijaya Barge, Vice Principal and Professor of Shankarrao Ursal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences & Research Centre, Kharadi, concluded the seminar with a vote of gratitude.

The overall seminar was coordinated by Dr. Vijaya Barge, a NAAC coordinator.
